

A glow of a tale for sleepy little monsters

It's time for bed, and Monster needs to go to sleep. But he just keeps finding more things to stay awake for! It isn't until Monster admits he is afraid of the dark that he finds a glowing solution to his nighttime problem. In this playful, rhyming story, Monster shows young readers that with a little help from a friend, the dark isn't that scary at all.

Series Info

Growing up with Monster is always fun and always an adventure. He has all sorts of things to learn and experience for the first time, and the young boy who takes care of him will help him along the way. Written in humorous, read-aloud rhyme, the Monster & Me series builds character, social, and emotional learning skills through entertaining and memorable real life situations. Perfect for shared and individual reading at home, in school, or in the library.

- Meets Common Core Standards for English language arts that support reading practice, fluency, comprehension, vocabulary, and creative writing.

"Featuring an endearing character children will adore, this imaginative book will be hard to put down ... even at bedtime!"

—Sudipta Bardhan-Quallen, author of Pirate Princess and Chicks Run Wild

"I loved Monster Needs His Sleep—the perfect book for calming any night-fearing little monster."

—Paul Howard, illustrator of The Owl Who Was Afraid of the Dark

Paul Czajak got an 'F' with the words "get a tutor" on his college writing paper and, after that, never thought he'd become a writer. But after spending twenty years as a chemist, he knew his creativity could no longer be contained. Living in Massachusetts with his wife, and two little monsters, Paul has rediscovered his passion for writing and looks forward to sharing his stories for years to come.

Wendy Grieb is a professional working in the Los Angeles animation industry. She is also an Annie Award winning storyboard artist, who has worked as a developmental artist, illustrator, and character designer for companies such as Disney, Nickelodeon, Sony, Klasky-Csupo, White Wolf, and more.
